Open Evenings

Any one wishing to do Christmas shopping after supper will find our store open evenings from this time on during the holidays.

We have the largest stock of specially selected high grade furniture on our floors at the present time we ever brought to El Paso, showing extremely interesting values and many beautiful and appropriate things with which to accompany the season's compliments.

A special feature of interest just now is an exhibit of high art bed room furniture covering the eastern section of our entire first floor which includes many styles in period and classic furniture as exclusive today almost as when first designed.

Visitors Always Welcome.
